Ischiorectal fossa

- It is a wedge-shaped space on each side of the anal canal.

ALEXANDRIA NATIONAL UNIVERSITY
ANU MEDICAL SCHOOL PROGRAM

Ischiorectal fossa

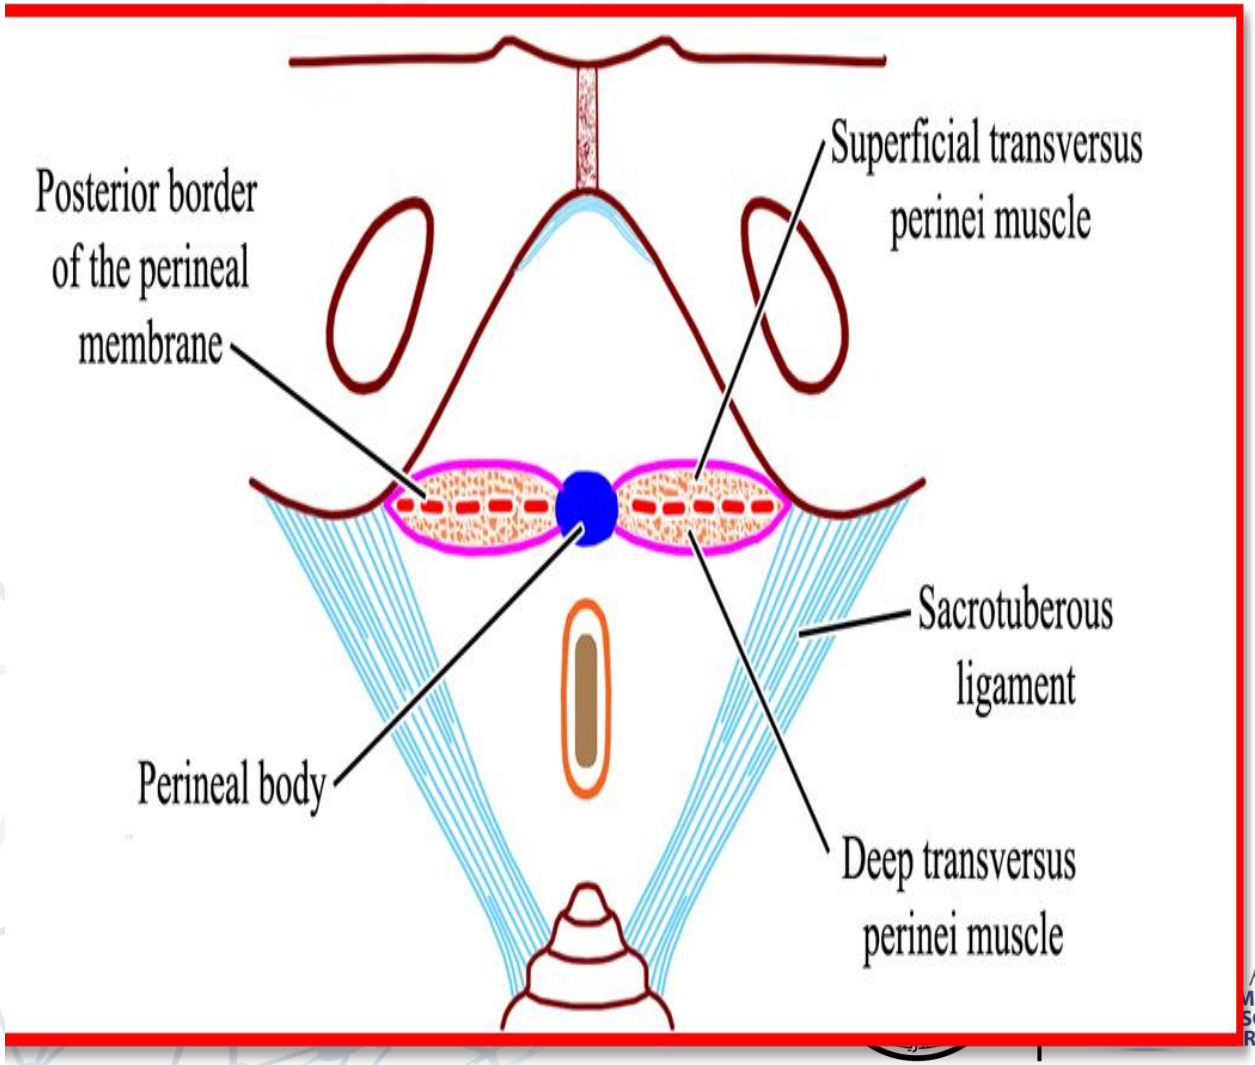

Ischiorectal fossa

Boundaries :

1- Anterior : posterior border of perineal membrane and superficial and deep transverse perineal muscles.

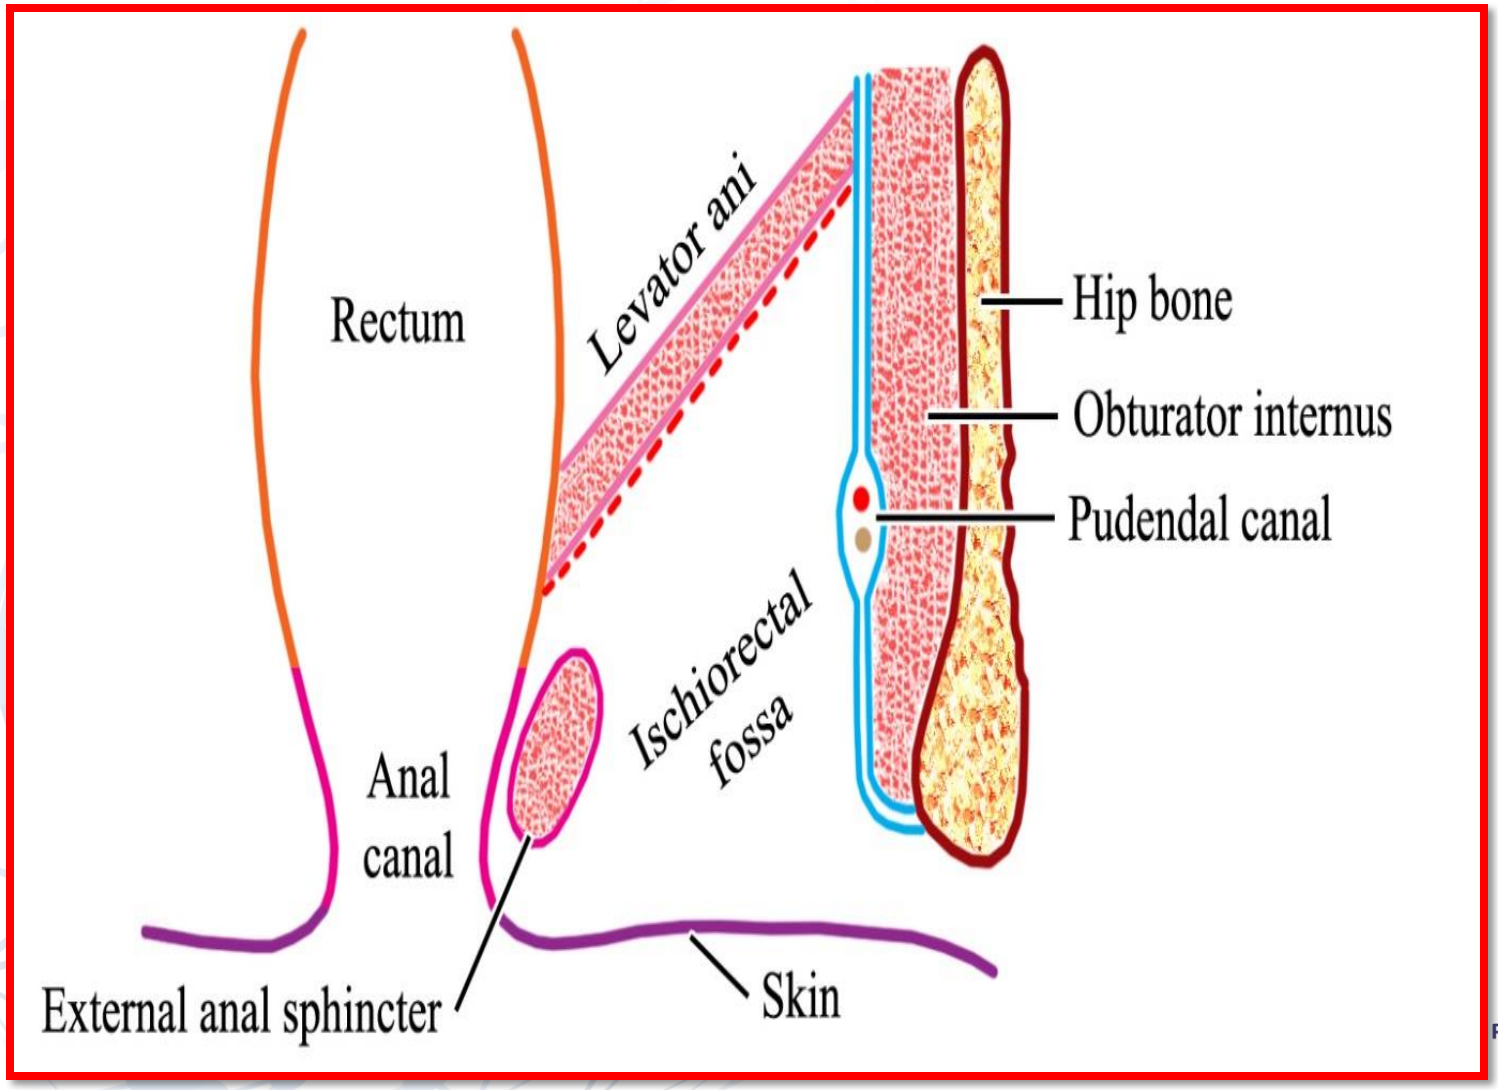

2- Posterior : sacrotuberous ligament.

ANU MEDICAL SCHOOL PROGRAM

Ischiorectal fossa

Boundaries :

ANU MEDICAL SCHOOL PROGRAM

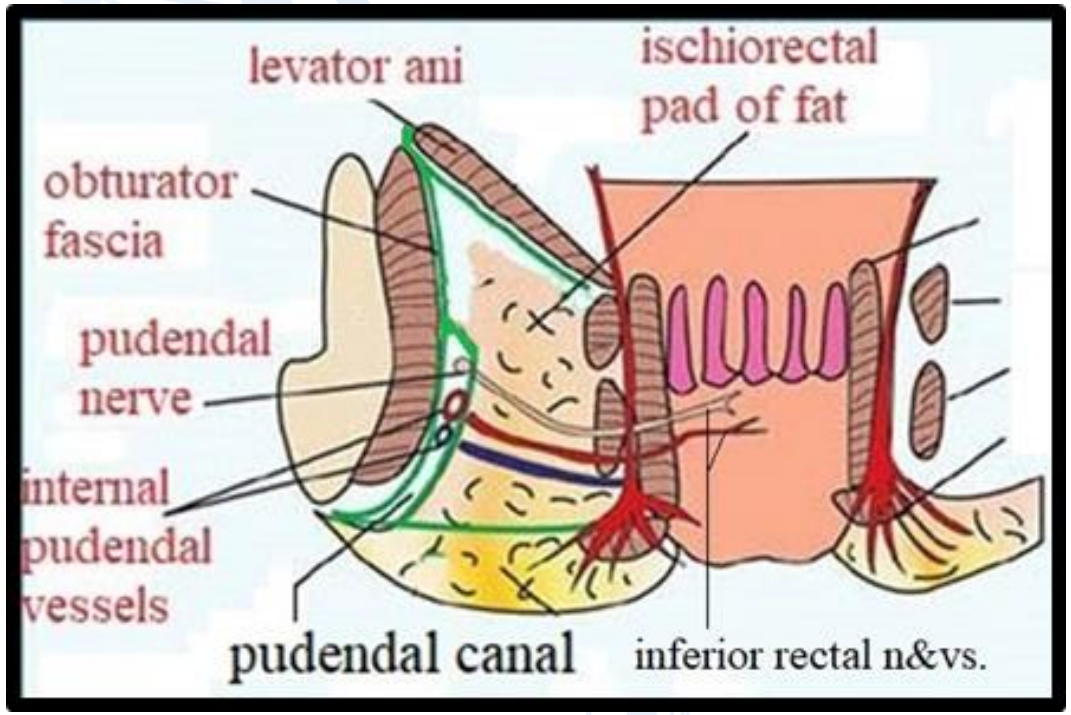

Ischiorectal fossa

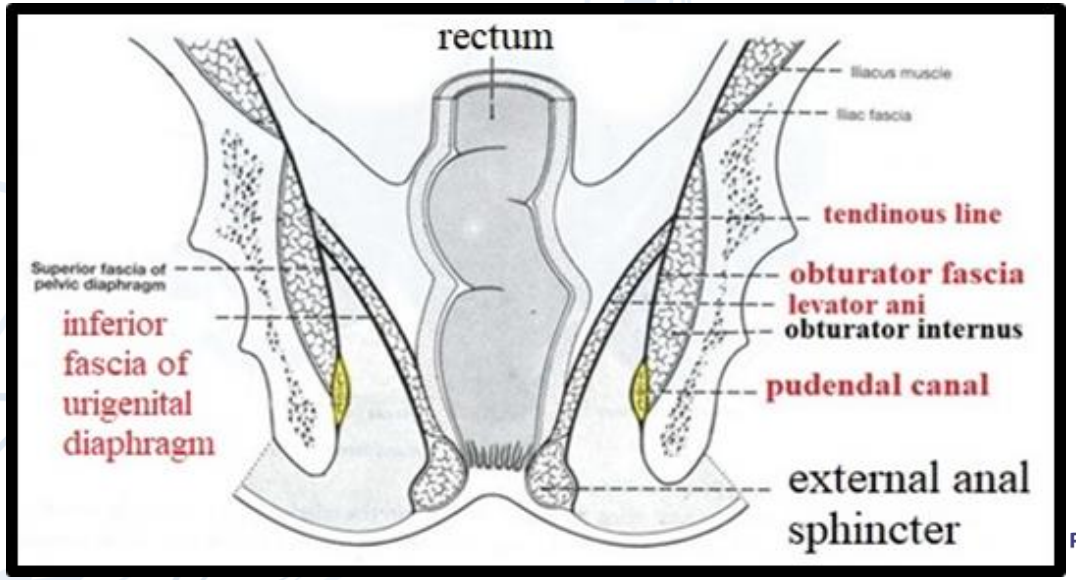

3- Lateral : obturator internus muscle and fascia and pudendal canal.

4- Medial : sloping wall made by levator ani and external anal sphincter.

5- Superior : tendinous line of obturator fascia (origin of levator ani).

6- Inferior : skin of the perineum.

ANU MEDICAL SCHOOL PROGRAM

Contents of ischiorectal fossa

- Ischiorectal pad of fat to allow distension of the anal canal during defecation.
- Vessels : inferior rectal and scrotal or labial.
- Nerves : inferior rectal and scrotal or labial.

