Factors keeping the uterus in position

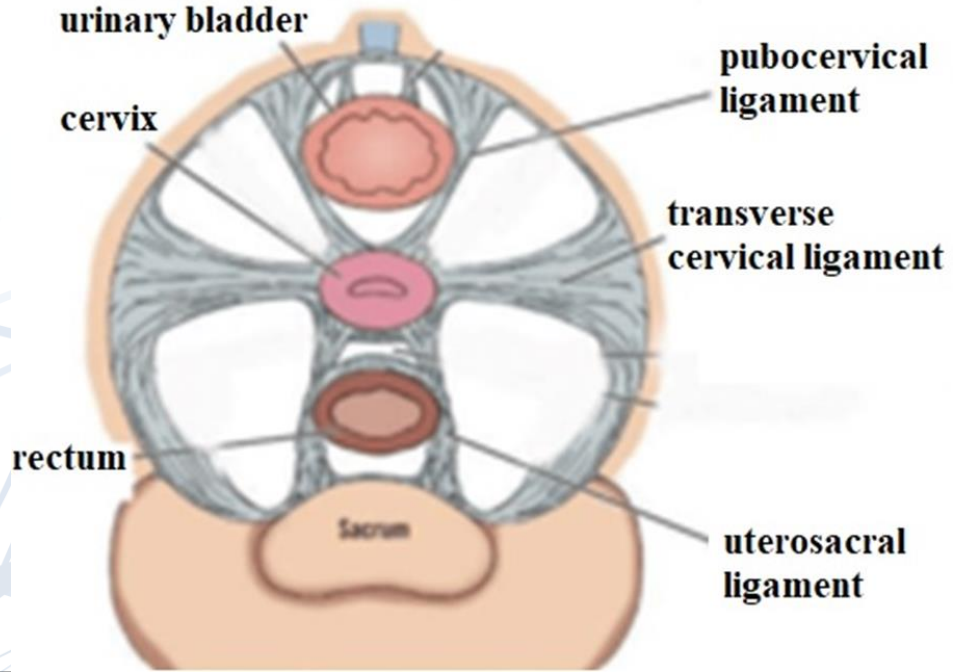

1- Ligaments. (the most important factor especially the cardinal ligament).

2- Pelvic floor.

3- Perineal body.

4- Neighboring organs.

Clinical notes

Uterine prolapse :

- Due to weakness of the supporting factors and injury of the pelvic floor.
- The uterus may descend downwards with protrusion (telescoping) through the vagina.

